MANY BRITISH AND GERMAN WARSHIPS ARE SUNK IN THE WAR'S GREATEST SEA BATTLE

LONDON AND BERLIN BOTH CONFIRM DETAILS OF DAY AND NIGHT ENGAGEMENT IN NORTH SEA — GERMANS CLAIM VICTORY IN FIGHT—THOUSANDS DROWN IN SEA.

BRITISH LOSE MANY BIG SEA FIGHTERS

(Associated Press)

The greatest naval battle in the history of the world was fought between the British and German war fleets in the North sea on May 31.

Berlin, Germany, June 2.—The Admiralty announced today that the German High Sea fleet on May 31 encountered the British Fighting fleet, and that a fierce naval battle occurred that day and continued all of the night of the 31st. The large British battle cruisers Queen Mary and Indefatigable and two armored cruisers were destroyed by the German warships.

The Admiralty also reported that a small British cruiser and a number of destroyers and torpedo boats were sunk. By observation it is established that a large number of the British battleships suffered heavy damage from the fire of the Germans' big ships and torpedo boats.

Admiralty Statement.

The German Admiralty statement is as follows:

"The German high sea fleet encountered the main part of the English fighting fleet, which is considerably superior to ours. During the afternoon, between Skagerak and Horn Riff, a heavy engagement developed which was successful for us and which continued throughout the entire night."

"As far as is known at present there were destroyed by us the large battleship Warspite, the battle cruisers Queen Mary and Indefatigable, two armored cruisers, one small cruiser, a new flagship, the destroyers Turbinant, Nestore and Alcazar, a large number of torpedo boat destroyers and one submarine."

"The battleship Marlborough was also hit by a torpedo. This is confirmed by the statements of prisoners taken during the engagement."

"Several of our ships rescued parts of crews from unknown English ships that had been sunk, among them being the two and only survivors of the Indefatigable.

"On our side the small cruiser Welsbaden and the battleship Pommern were sunk. The ship Fraunhof is missing and the fate of some of the torpedo boats is unknown."

British Confirm Losses.

London, Eng., June 2.—The British Admiralty today announced a battle in the North Sea between the British and German battle fleets, in course of which a number of German ships were sunk. British battle cruisers Queen Mary and Indefatigable, the battleship Invincible and the cruisers Defense and Black Prince were sunk. The British cruiser Warrien was disabled.

"The British destroyers Tipperary, Turbulent, Fortune, Sparrowhawk and Ardent are lost and six others are not yet accounted for."

The German losses are described as serious and the British Admiralty states that two German battle cruisers were sunk and that two German light cruisers were disabled and probably sunk.

Cost Many Millions.

The battleship Warspite had a tonnage of 27,500 tons and carried a crew of 750 men. Its estimated cost was twelve and a half million dollars.

The battle cruiser Queen Mary was of 27,000 tons, had a complement of 900 men and cost ten million dollars.

The Indefatigable was a ship of 19,000 tons, complement about 950 men and cost nearly eight million dollars to build.

SHELLS NOW WORTH $25 A TON

It is reported in official circles that the embargo against clamming in Rock river, against which the clambers have been protesting for some time, will be raised by the State Fish & Game commission next week. LITTLE NET GAIN IN VERDUN FIGHT

Germans Win and Lose Lines in Heavy Attacks.

BOTH SIDES CONCEDE LOSSES

Berlin Admits Loss of 400 Meters of Trench South of Dead Man's Hill—Paris Says French Lost Northeast of Verdun—French Claim Large Gains.

Paris, June 2.—Repeated German assaults upon the French line between Thiaumont farm and Vaux succeeded in driving the French from their first-line trenches between Douaumont and Vaux pond. The midnight report admits the loss, but declares heavy attacks at other points were foiled.

Paris, June 2.—The Germans were completely repulsed in an attack delivered upon the French positions at Dead Man's Hill according to an official statement issued by the French war office. A violent bombardment continued in this region throughout the night. An intense artillery duel is in progress on the east and west fronts at Douaumont.

French Reserves Not All Engaged. The crown prince is now in a position where it is imperative that he deal the French such a blow before Verdun as to disable them at least for a sufficient time to permit Germany to cope with the Russian hosts which are becoming more formidable daily. France faces the prospect with equanimity. Contrary to reports published in Germany the French main reserves are by no means all engaged at Verdun. Fresh British divisions are completing their training every day and swelling the allies' ranks, while Germany daily is forced to throw more troops into the Verdun melting pot.

Verdun is more than ever the central point of the whole war, and critics here are confident that the enemy is making a supreme effort to win a quick success. The fighting increases in violence with each fresh onslaught, attack follows attack, with only sufficient pause for the preparatory bombardment and with unexampled fury.

Biggest Attack of Battle Fails.

More comprehensive accounts from Verdun show that the battle which raged from May 27 to May 30, and which ended, according to a statement of the war office, in a costly check for the Germans, was the greatest effort made by the Teutonic forces in the whole Verdun operations. More and heavier guns and denser masses of troops were assembled along the three miles of the French front from Hill 304 to the Meuse than in any previous attack.

The French stood firm under an avalanche of shot and shell and drove back wave after wave of a flood of Teutonic infantry. They surrendered only about 100 yards of ground at Little Caurettes wood, where a trench had been obliterated by the terrific fire of the German big guns.

Berlin Admits French Gain.

Berlin, June 2.—In an attack on German positions southeast of Dead Man's Hill on the Verdun front the French obtained a foothold in the German first-line trenches over an extent of 400 meters, the war office announces. The French made repeated assaults on the German lines but other than that at the point mentioned were beaten off with extremely heavy losses.

Bloomington, Ill., June 2.—Twenty persons were injured, one of them probably fatally, when the Wabash railroad's mail train, No. 17, running between Chicago and St. Louis, was blown from the track a mile south of Saunemin at 2 o'clock this morning by one of the most severe wind storms that has been experienced in central Illinois in many years. The remarkable accident occurred in a deep cut, the sides of which prevented the cars from turning clear over. The combination baggage and smoking car and four coaches were blown from the track and a Pullman sleeper crashed through the smoker, literally tearing it to pieces. It was in this car that most of the injuries occurred. The other Pullmans remained on the track. One woman was thrown through a car window and twenty feet beyond, but was only slightly injured.

The corpse of Oscar Eberhardt, Sr., enroute to Griggsville, Ill., for burial, was thrown out of the casket. Among the injured were Mrs. Oscar Eberhardt of Chicago, Mrs. Mamie Eberhardt of Griggsville and Oscar Eberhardt, Jr., of Chicago. The most seriously injured passengers were sent to Chicago on a special train.

JUNE.

June, the peerless month of roses bugs. These are its greatest draw-bats and romance, strawberries and straw backs. The June tornado is usually hats, soft breezes and still softer conversation, is the most poetic month of the year. By June Nature has gotten strained through screens before it is over her waking up grouchy and has let into the house, in order to free it gotten down to her job of upholstering the world in flowers and vegetation. The world is handsomer in June than in any other month and has more decent intervals.

In June, people fall in love with each other without effort and get married in the evening under floral bells in the presence of large companies of invited guests. June averages a wedding every 1 1/4 seconds. It isn't June weather, however, which makes its weddings, but the fact that it usually takes until June for the prospective bridegroom to recover from Christmas and save enough for his wedding trip.

June is also very prolific in commencements. In June thousands of eager young high school students and collegians graduate in loud, clear tones and hundreds of college towns sink into a comatose state for the next three months. Commencement is a very happy season for newly-fledged graduates, and also for the weary fathers who foot the college bills, for "commencement" means "Get-thru-ment" or them.

CHICAGO RAILROADS' NEW FREIGHT DEPOTS

OVER $66,000,000 TO BE SPENT IN IMPROVEMENT OF ROAD TERMINALS.

MAXIMUM OF EFFICIENCY

(The Associated Press)

Chicago—The sum of $66,000,000 will have been expended by several of the great railroads operating in the Chicago district when the new freight and passenger terminals now under construction are completed. The freight terminal will be finished in about six more months but it will take nearly three years to complete the passenger terminal.

The freight terminal will embrace laying of trackage on a stretch covering twelve city blocks, from the Chicago river south to Twelfth street. The plans for the terminal were so arranged as to give a maximum speed and convenience of handling freight with a minimum of ground space necessary for the buildings involved. The work is being done by the Pennsylvania lines, West, and will cost, for land acquired, building material and labor, approximately $16,000,000 and the finished work will be one of the greatest achievements of its kind in the history of modern railroads.

The main aim of the builders was a terminal that would be so arranged as to eliminate street congestion in handling traffic and would make speedy and easy the handling of the enormous and steadily growing freight business of Chicago. This result will be accomplished by close grouping of the several parts of the territory structure and by placing the railroad tracks below street level, with the freight house just above the tracks, at street level, and with a storage warehouse above the freight house. The idea of placing the component parts of the terminal above one another was to give ground space and to make the handling of incoming and outgoing freight easy by a system of powerful, modern-type electric elevators.

Adjoining the freight house, and all under cover, will be eighteen tracks which will accommodate 400 freight cars. Inclosed driveways will protect freight and freight handlers in all sorts of weather.

One thousand men have been working for about ten months, some laying the heavy piling and concrete foundations, and some putting up the structural steel frame work of the buildings. About 25 per cent of the structural steel work remains to be finished. This will be in about six months and the total cost of labor, by that time, will, it is estimated, amount to about $1,000,000.

The steel, brick, concrete, piling and terra cotta that will go into the buildings will cost about $2,500,000.

The structures will occupy a ground space of 450 by 750 feet between Polk street on the north, and Taylor street on the south between the Chicago river was what was once Stewart Avenue. Acquisition of the ground thus used cost the railroad company $12,000,000.

The union passenger terminal, on which preparatory work was begun and which will be completed in about three years, will cost about $50,000,000 and will be the finest railway passenger station in the world, its projectors say. It will be built and occupied by the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, the Pennsylvania, and the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy roads, the Pennsylvania being represented by two branches, the "Panhandle" and the Fort Wayne.

The station will be composed virtually of two buildings, with common facilities of egress and ingress. A main building will be west of Canal street and a concourse, between two sets of tracks, will be east of Canal street, each of the two buildings will be surrounded by four streets, thus giving eight points of exit and entrance to passengers and making access of trains quick and convenient. Train sheds will extend from Madison street, south to Harrison street.

The architectural feature of the main building will be a waiting room 100 by 300 feet and 120 feet high. The building will occupy a ground space of 325 by 350 feet. The train sheds will be of the latest covered-in type and will eliminate columns in the center of the platforms.

WILSON WILL MARCH ON FOOT IN PARADE

Announces He Will Take Part for Preparedness.

Washington, June 2—President Wilson's announcement that he would "not only review but march in" Washington's preparedness parade June 14 has given a tremendous impetus to the local celebration and electrified the politicians.

The entry of the president as a real marcher in the parade is expected to be followed by similar promises from nearly all the high officials in Washington and by a demand from government clerks, who already have a half holiday to see the parade and to participate in the flag day exercises, that a whole day be given them that they may also march.

So enthusiastic were members of the local committee that they predicted that 50,000 marchers will follow the president down Pennsylvania avenue.

Use Coconut Oil For Washing Hair

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain melted coconut oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get purified coconut oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.

Entertained Tiny Tots

Miss Alta Vail delightfully entertained the members of her Sunday School, who are to take part in the Children's Day exercises, at her home in North Dixon Wednesday afternoon. The tiny tots spent a merry afternoon romping about the beautiful lawn of the Vail home. At the close of the afternoon a dainty cream, so dear to childish hearts, was the dessert.

Canning Demonstration

The three-day demonstration of canning given under the auspices of the Walton Domestic Science Club at St. Mary's hall, Walton, May 25-27th, will probably be far reaching in its results, opening to the housewives of a large section of country around Walton, new ways of doing things, better and easier than their accustomed methods. The canning demonstration was in charge of Mrs. Fred Hatch of Spring Grove, a leader in the canning school movement and an expert in the cold pack method, which was demonstrated.

Vegetables and fruit of all description, soups and meats, chicken on the bone, etc., were canned in these demonstrations and the products of each afternoon's canning were given to those holding lucky numbers, so that homes in Walton, Harmon, Amboy, West Brooklyn, etc., will have an opportunity to see how successful the system of canning really is. Mrs. Hatch used a steam cooker in which the jars, packed with unheated fruit, etc., were placed. The fruit was cooked and canned in a few moments. She also demonstrated that a wash boiler, filled partially with water, could be used to the same end, although it would take longer. She suggested that the jars, with glass tops, the easy seal type, were more sanitary and could be used to better advantage in canning whole fruit or vegetables. She particularly condemned the use of canning powders. List of recipes sent out from Washington covering the canning of all foods, were given out to those present.

The stereopticon lecture given on Friday evening by Mrs. Hatch was very helpful, touching on many problems of the farm woman and, as Mrs. Hatch herself belongs to that group, she knew of what she spoke. Among other interesting things she showed what the child, even as young as eight years, could do in raising food stuff in a garden. Mr. Griffith, county advisor from Amboy, also gave an interesting address on the needs of the county along the line of soil improvement, etc.

Ideal Club Picnic

The members of the Ideal Club will enjoy a picnic in Morrison at the home of Mrs. Fred Wohnke Saturday, June 3d, instead of on June 2d as originally planned. All those who plan to go should take the 10:23 train.

To Attend Graduation

Mrs. Hollis Phillips of Rhodes, Iowa, is a guest of her sister, Mrs. John Thome. While here she will attend the graduation exercises of the North Dixon high school from which her niece, Miss Vera Thome, graduates.

Successful Musicales

Tri-County Press: Mrs. Dallas Wendle entertained between 65 and 70 of her friends last Friday afternoon. The entertainment took the form of a musicale, the program being given by Mr. Robert R. Anderson of Dixon. Mrs. Maude Adams Goodsell of the same place acted as accompanist.

Mr. Anderson is no stranger in this city and it was with delight that those present heard the splendid program which he gave. Many expressed the opinion that Mr. Anderson's full rich baritone voice had never been heard to better advantage in this city. After every number, he was compelled to respond to an encore.

Following the program dainty refreshments were served.

Pennsylvania Corners' Aid

The Ladies' Aid of Pennsylvania Corners met in weekly session Wednesday with Mrs. J. O. Longman as hostess. She was ably assisted by the Misses Ethel Seyster and Mary Fessler in the serving of a bountiful repast at noon. Mrs. D. Waterbury of Chicago and Mrs. Elias Bomberger of Polo were guests for the day. The members and guests passed a very enjoyable day together. On next Wednesday Mrs. J. F. Bovey and the Misses Marjorie Staff and Grace Nettz will look after the noonday luncheon.

From Sterling

Miss Fern Buzzard of Sterling is the guest of Mrs. Paul Buzzard at the W. Leslie home.

People who are always constipated which brings on headaches, sallow color, foul breath, poor appetite should not delay a minute, but take Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea now. You will wonder at its results. Rowland Bros.

Phidian Art Club Picnic

The Phidian Art Club will hold their annual picnic Tuesday, June 6th, at Lowell Park. The Esby host will make two trips—at three o'clock, twenty-five cents the round trip. The club members have the privilege of taking guests. Those going will please notify Mrs. Morrison.

Zion Missionary

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Zion Lutheran church met Friday afternoon at the church with 18 present. The Bible study was in charge of Mrs. Tobias Schweitzer and Mrs. L. Woods conducted the session study. Plans were made for an ice cream social to be held Thursday, June 8th, in the church basement. An interesting program is planned for this event.

In LaMoille

Rev. and Mrs. L. Woods and family spent Memorial Day in La Moille as the guests of Mrs. Woodfather and brother.

St. Luke's Anniversary

The presence of the founder, Rev. John C. Sage, who came here from Keokuk, Iowa, for the occasion, marked the nineteenth anniversary of the founding of the vested choir of St. Luke's Episcopal church as one to go down in the annals of the church as an event of unusual interest. The former parishioners of this man, whose presence radiated kindness and geniality, listened as he made the address of the evening, with memories of old stirring with him as he talked, giving them a message not from the past, but an impulse toward the future.

The service marked the eve of Ascension day and the speaker took as his topic "The Ascension of Christ," using the text, "He was made man and ascended into heaven," an extract from the Nicene creed. The music for the evening had also for its theme "The Ascension" and was beautifully rendered by the full vested choir of many voices, with Mrs. Beach, Miss Kent, Mrs. Ralston, Mrs. Harvey and Mrs. Martin in special numbers, and Mrs. Will H. Smith, who has served for many years, at the organ. The Smith orchestra also assisted in the services. The services were in charge of the rector, Rev. Frederick C. Grant.

In his remarks introducing the Rev. John Sage as speaker of the evening, Rev. Mr. Grant paid tribute to the high worth of the services of Rev. Mr. Sage of fifteen years ago, saying that he could still see the results of his pastorate here in many ways. Rev. Mr. Grant then spoke of the occasion, the anniversary of the choir's founding, and the services of Mr. Martin of Chicago, its first director. He also regretted the absence of Mr. Norton, prominent in the choir formerly, and now director of St. James choir, Chicago, who is ill at the present time at one of the city hospitals of typhoid fever.

In the preface of his address Rev. Mr. Sage spoke of his five years of service in St. Luke's, repeating what he had said nearly fifteen years ago in his farewell—that the years spent as the rector of St. Luke's had been five of the happiest years of his life. He then mentioned the founding of the choir, saying that he believed that membership in the choir was the means of bringing many young lives to know God the better through service to mankind. The parish that lives to itself, he said, is bound to die just as the individual will shrivel in its soul if it does not do service for others.

The ascension of Christ revealed the destiny of man, he said. Every thing is created for an end, for beauty or for use, or for both—the beautiful tree, for shade, for wood; the animal—its skin for clothing, its flesh for food—but the destiny of man is revealed by the ascension of Christ—the return to God. He spoke of the physical perfection of the body of man, the wonders of its mechanism—more marvelous than anything man could conceive of—started and going for years without stopping; the wonders of the intellect and the spiritual aspect of man. But to what end all this? The answer, he said, lay in the ascension of Christ.

The incarnation of Christ, the divine into Christ, the human, brought into the world a new condition of things, a higher conception of the worth of the body, the temple of the living God—the body heretofore pampered and abused by man. Christ taught purity and chastity.

The conclusion of Rev. Mr. Sage's address told of the work of today for the betterment of physical health, the oversight of working conditions that men, women, and children might work under conditions that men, women and children might work under conditions that would not injure the body, the repository of intellect and spirit. The address was an inspiring talk, ending with the injunction that the people hold up their present rector's hands in his work for God.

In the program of music St. Luke's choir invested itself with greater honor, the numbers through but being beautifully rendered. The following numbers were rendered, the processional hymn being the first number ever produced by the choir, nineteen years ago.

Prelude, andante, Shackley; processional hymn, "Look Ye Saints," Monk; duet, "Jesus, Joy of Every Loving Heart," Mrs. Beach, Miss Kent; Gloria to Psalms; Magnificat, chant; Nunc Dimittis, chant; angel trio from oratorio of Elijah, Mendelssohn, Mrs. Herbert W. Martin, Mrs. Douglas Harvey, Mrs. John G. Ralston; anthem, "Lift Up Your Heads, Oh Ye Gates," Hopkins; gloria, Turle; offertory, duet; Mrs. Harvey, Mrs. Ralston; processional hymn, "Crown Him With Many Crowns," Elvey; postlude, coronation march; Meyerbeer; organ and orchestra.

A reception followed the services, giving all those present an opportunity to speak with their beloved former pastor, Rev. Mr. Sage. The rector, Rev. Mr. Grant, and Mrs. Grant, also assisted in greeting the guests. The very good refreshments of coffee, small cakes and cheese, were served in buffet fashion in the guild rooms where the reception took place. After the more than a hundred guests had enjoyed meeting and talking of former days with Mr. Sage and the coffee cups were taken up, a short program was given; letters were read by the chorister, Mrs. Smith, from absent members; Howard Cambell played a pleasing cornet solo, and Rev. Mr. Sage and Rev. Mr. Grant each gave short talks; Mr. Sage of the past, and Mr. Grant's looking into the future. Those whose greetings were read, are:

Edna Woodruff, Blessing, Tex.; Harold Hyde, Minneapolis, Minn.; Howard McCleary, Vancouver, B. C.; Maud Cheatele Ankeny, Blue Earth, Minn.; Harry Gonnemann, Urbana, Ill.; Denman Clark, McAlester, Okla.; John Norton, Chicago; Louis Deeter, Chicago; Sue Steel, Chicago; Roy Miller, Berkeley, Cal.; Orville Miller, Sacramento, Cal.; Avrina Davies Westerman, Madison, Wis.; Cecil Heckman Russell, Wausau, Wis.; Harry McManus, Chicago; Charles Lowry, Kalispell, Mont.; Mrs. Lucille Morrison Matthews, Spokane, Washington; and Earl S. Miller, San Francisco, California.

The letters revealed that all were doing their share in the world's work. Miss Sue Steel sent as her contribution a poem, which is printed below:

Back to the dear old choir days,
My mind doth turn tonight—
I want to send my greetings
And wish with all my might
That I were at St. Luke's just now
O'er old days to "reminisce."
The fun we had those years ago
I never cease to miss—
Perhaps of all the dear good friends
Those whom I think of most
Are Mr. Sage, our rector kind,
Who in himself was host,
And Mrs. Smith, the organist,
Whose energy and zeal
Has never lagged in all these years
Whose work seems never done.
And then whom we know and loved
The cross he bore at times—
John Norton—at St. James, renowned.

From organ peals the chimes
And one to whom all praise is due
For her untiring work
Is Mrs. Chandler who was never
From duty known to shrink.
Then let us toast our St. Luke's choir

Toast members old and new;
Let's give three cheers to her success
In the past and the future too!

BOASTFUL HISTORIES.

Self-delusion is the resort of the stupid. It is so futile an expedient that even the ostrich, contrary to the old legend about his habitual endeavors to escape the hunter by thrusting his head into the desert sand, does not employ it. Some intelligent nations, however, make up for deficiencies in their performances by setting down apocryphal accounts of such performances in their histories and especially in their text-books on history.

Such a practice is as injurious in its effects upon the national organism as is the use of drugs upon the body and the mind of the individual. The errors and shortcomings of nations, like those of individuals, can be remedied and rectified only when they are recognized, analyzed and traced to their causes.

Franklin D. Roosevelt, assistant secretary of the navy, pointed out in a recent address some of the delusions which have become a matter of common belief through the unwarranted liberties which have been taken with the facts of history in the text-books from which our young glean their ideas of this country's greatness.

He mentioned that America's victory over the Barbary corsairs is magnified in these books, while the fact that for years America paid an annual tribute of $100,000 to those freebooters of the sea is passed over gently and unobtrusively by deft authors.

He called attention to the meagre achievements of our army in the war of 1812, generally characterized as a triumph for American arms, and ascribed our escape from disaster to the fact that "a gentleman by the name of Napoleon" was "keeping the British busy about that time."

He might have gone on and multiplied instances of the self-complacency which has long been a national vice.

It is time we abandoned the drug-taking habit in our school books and devoted ourselves to the task of taking a good look at our faults as a preliminary step to their elimination. Let us, as a nation, be as free from self-delusion as the ostrich, who has so long been maligned by nature fakery. Let us have the truth.—New York Mail.

GET THEM READY.

Of all the periods of the year the month of May is the month devoted to the feast of education. It is the month in which the sweet girl graduate and the American boy prepare themselves for what is not inaptly termed "commencement" day. In a very short while the ambitious youth and his fair sister will learn that it was a "commencement" day and that graduation is not education, says the Freeport Journal-Standard.

Education is what a man can do for himself, and some men cannot be educated. They can be highly trained. What capacity they have can be raised to the very highest power of efficiency. That is what our universities are doing for the immense majority of their students. They are simply developing the natural capacity so that the younger element may serve society to its best advantage and gain the maximum out of life for themselves—that maximum varying according to avocation.

College or university education is not to be depreciated. It is education, for want of a better term, not education in its entirety. Education implies culture and culture implies a knowledge of the best that has been thought and said and done in the world, and a whole-hearted effort to make that best prevail in the lives of men. The genuinely educated man is free from moral baggages and small fanaticisms. More than any other man he perceives that human life is the sum total of all of its activities and that the one thing needful is to understand this fact so that no false conceptions may cloud his spiritual view. The essential difference between the uneducated and the educated lies simply in the difference in the things they deem worth while. The graduates soon to be turned out on an unsuspecting public will learn these things in time. It is well to let them in on the secrets before "commencement" day.

"FIX IT OR FIGHT."

Woman suffragists as a whole are now learning the important political fact that the average congressman's personal convictions mean less to him than party victory, that there is more efficacy in the clever manipulation of party politics than in either physical force or sentimental appeal. "The time for arguing the justice of our cause has passed," declared an earnest suffrage delegation which visited us; "four million women in twelve states and Alaska have been enfranchised; these twelve states are pivotal territory, their elections for the past five years having been determined by an average majority of only 9 per cent of the total vote cast; so that we feel that we will easily hold the balance of power in a close election. We will defeat the democratic party unless the present congress passes a federal amendment before next November. 'Fix it or Fight!' is our slogan. Mr. Roosevelt has already approved our amendment. The Woman's party at its Chicago convention, which will be held at the same time as those of the republicans and progressives in the same city, will not put forward any candidate of its own. Our voting sisters of the west have promised us nonvoting women of the east a determined advocacy of our cause. Their delegates to our convention will menace democratic congressmen with the fact that one-third of the votes necessary to elect the next president is cast in the states they represent. Unless congress passes our amendment we will do to the democratic party what the progressives did to the republican party in 1912." The sagacity implied in these presentiments we are compelled to admire. Here is an argument which may well stagger the reactionaries. Such persuasion from such politicians should not and cannot forever fail.—Collier's.

WHY NOT SAY "WOMAN?"

Whenever one has occasion to mention the most remarkable sex of the human species one is confronted by the pertinacious fact that there is no general term to describe the subject of one's dissertations except the unlovely and almost meaningless term "female." That term is altogether too general. It includes cows, hens and all other beings of that gender. Some word is needed that will express the female of the human species and nothing else. She who orders the universe and makes planets and suns and stars worth while ought to have a name of her own and one worthy of her. We call upon the nations of the world to cease their fighting and devote themselves for a time to this really important task.—Chicago News.

What Some Are Doing

Among special points of interest in letters read last evening at the choir anniversary of St. Luke's was the work that is being done by Miss Edna Woodruff, a teacher at Blessing, Texas, who is aiding in the organization of a library and in the soliciting for funds for a library building. Of interest also was the fact that Earl Miller, now in Los Angeles, is assistant to the vice president of an oil concern with a capital of $45,000,000.

CURRENT COMMENT

Centralia Review: If a man can't make a success of private business we can make him a member of a government commission, place it in control of some large new government enterprise like a shipping business or a nitrate plant or a telephone and telegraph business, and let him run that.

Cairo Herald: Another piece of good news coming to Cairo is the telegram from Congressman Denison announcing that the Humphrey flood control bill passed the house of representatives last evening by a large majority. This is a measure in which Cairo people are vitally interested and they have been watching the legislation on this bill with great interest.

Pittsfield Times: The little red school house, celebrated in song and story, the school where millions of American people laid the foundation of their education, will probably disappear within a few years from the greater part of America. Time was when it was a necessary part of our educational system, but changing conditions made it costly and inefficient.

"Hum, ho!" sighed the New Hampshire farmer, as he came in from downtown. "Deacon Jones wants me to be pallbearer again to his wife's funeral."

"Wall, you're goin' to be, ain't ye?" asked the farmer's better half.

"I dunno. Y' know, when Deacon Jones's first wife died, he asked me to be a pallbearer, an' I did; and then his second wife died, an' I was the same again. An' then he married that Perkins gal, and she died, and I was pall bearer to that funeral. An' now—wal, I don't like to be all the time acceptin' favors without bein' able to return 'em."

Careless Old Dog

WHY HE WAS BASHFUL.
Asked Questions About Topeka That Were Not Tactful.
A Hutchinson girl declares this story to be true. She was visiting at a small Kansas town recently, and while there her hostess gave a party in her honor, and invited the pick of the whole countryside. Among the guests was a boy who had been to Topeka, so she had heard.

She had some acquaintance in Topeka and tried to draw him out, inquiring: "How did you like Topeka?"

The young fellow blushed and looked down before he murmured: "Oh, pretty well."

"Do you know many people there?" she continued, trying to get him interested, and attributing his reticence to bashfulness.

"Why, not many," he said, tugging at his collar, as if it were strangling him.

"I suppose you went to the park while you were there?" she asked.

"No," he replied. "I did not attend any of the affairs at the park."

She talked about other things, and later, when an opportunity came, asked the hostess why that boy had been so reticent about talking of Topeka. The hostess threw up her hands.

"We simply had to invite him," she replied. "He belongs to a good family. As a matter of fact, he has just returned from Topeka, where he has been in the reform school!"

SHE WONDERED.

Gerald—Once I was strongly tempted to blow out my brains.
Geraldine—Did you do it?

He Finally Won Out.
"Nettie," cried the enamored young man, "I love you, and would go to the world's end for you."

"Oh, no, you wouldn't, James," retorted the sweet girl graduate. "The world, or the earth, as it is called, is round like a ball; therefore it has no end."

"Yes, I know," continued the e. y. m., "but what I meant was that I'd do anything to please you. Ah, dearest, if you knew the aching void—"

"Now I am surprised, James," interrupted the s. g. g. "Nature abhors a vacuum, and there is no such thing as a void; but admitting that there could be such a thing, how could the void you speak of be void if there was an ache in it?"

"Oh, well," rejoined the young man, "at least I've got cash and property amounting to nearly $100,000, and I want you to be my wife. So, there!"

"James," rejoined the fair one without a moment's hesitation, "since you put it in that light, I haven't the heart to refuse you. Let the wedding bells ring without unnecessary delay."—Chicago News.

An Old Fable.
"Metaphysics," said Bishop Castle, of Oregon, at a dinner in Philomath, "is a subject that always makes one think of the cat and the owl."

"A cat, you know, once set forth in quest of happiness. She wandered up, she wandered down; she questioned this animal and she questioned that. Finally, wrapped in meditation in a tree, she perceived an owl."

"Owl!" said the cat, "tell me, most wise bird, where happiness is to be found!"

"In meditation," the owl replied. "Meditation alone is the true secret of happiness."

"But," said the cat, "on what subject am I to meditate?"

"On the subject," the owl answered, "which has occupied the race of owls since the beginning of time—namely: Which came first, the owl or the egg; for, while the owl comes from the egg, so also does the egg come from the owl!"—Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

Negro Lingo.
Senator Taylor, of Tennessee, tells of an old negro whose worthless son was married secretly. The old man heard of it and asked the boy if he was married. "I ain't sayin' I ain't," the boy replied. "Now, you Rastus," stormed the old man, "I ain't askin' you is you ain't; I is askin' you ain't you is."

Golf Defined.
"How do them summer boarders of your'n keep busy?"

"They play golf."

"What'n Sam Hill's that?"

"S near'n I kin figger, it's solitarie shinnny."

HELP FOR WORKING WOMEN

Some Have to Keep on Until They Almost Drop. How Mrs. Conley Got Help.

Here is a letter from a woman who had to work, but was too weak and suffered too much to continue. How she regained health:

Frankfort, Ky.—"I suffered so much with female weakness that I could not do my own work, had to hire it done. I heard so much about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that I tried it. I took three bottles and I found it to be all you claim. Now I feel as well as ever I did and am able to do all my own work again. I recommend it to any woman suffering from female weakness. You may publish my letter if you wish."—Mrs. JAMES CONLEY, 516 St. Clair St., Frankfort, Ky.

No woman suffering from any form of female troubles should lose hope until she has given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial.

This famous remedy, the medicinal ingredients of which are derived from native roots and herbs, has for forty years proved to be a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism.

All women are invited to write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for special advice—it will be confidential.

Contributed: "It is thought advisable for parents who allow their children to roam the streets after dark and miss fresh washed clothes on the line to instruct them not to get caught at it as some one is liable to get hurt."

Editor's Note: By the wording of the above our readers can see that a very mean trick was played upon a line hanging filled with newly washed clothes and that the owner was much disgusted with such actions on the part of these children who committed the mischief. The contributor wishes to give a warning from the above because as he says more of this sort of actions means that some one will get hurt and he does not want it said later that a warning was not given to the parents.

George Vincent was in town Tuesday evening.

C. W. Faltz and family of Somonauk and Bert Faltz and family of Joliet were visitors with relatives in West Brooklyn Sunday.

Edward Henry Jr. of Viola township was here Tuesday.

J. G. Conschack motored to Mendota Wednesday.

The opening number of the series of band concerts to be given in West Brooklyn on Thursday nights this summer was played by the band this week. The boys have a good supply of the latest music and have been practicing for several months in order to be in a position to render better concerts than ever during 1916. The rehearsals this week were held on Monday night instead of Tuesday, due to the dance.

During the term of school just closed three pupils were neither absent nor tardy during the entire nine months. The folks are to be congratulated upon their record and we hope that next year many more can have their names on this honor list for punctuality to duty. The folks are Rosetta Chaon, Georgia Derr and Clement Dinges. Two were from the intermediate room and one from the primary room.

The community was saddened on Monday to learn of the death of W. U. Biggart at his home west of town. Mr. Biggart had been ill for several weeks and only his courage and the efforts of those at his bedside in assisting him kept the end away as long as it did. The deceased was born on the farm where he died, although several years of his life were spent in West Brooklyn in the mercantile business, and also a number of years in Nebraska, as well as a few years in Wisconsin. He removed to the old farm home three years ago. The funeral services were held from the M. E. church Wednesday afternoon with burial in the Union cemetery adjoining town. The relatives have the sympathy of the writer in their bereavement. He leaves to mourn his loss his wife, one daughter, Mrs. D. R. Stroup and one son, Fred E. Biggart, as well as his brothers and sisters and other more distant relatives. Mr. Biggart had been a member of the M. W. A. for many years and carried a benefit certificate with the order which he leaves to his wife.

Prosper Gander broke ground for his new residence in the South Side addition this week and already the lumber is here and work will be rushed to completion so as to finish the building as quickly as possible. One or two families are awaiting its completion so as to move into the place being unable to locate anywhere else in town for every house is filled.

The West Brooklyn baseball team defeated the Harmon team for the second time this season by the score of 7 to 2 in a good game on the local diamond Sunday afternoon. There seems to be something about this diamond that is lucky or the local team as they have never lost a game played there in over two years. Attend the next game they have and show the boys you appreciate their efforts to furnish West Brooklyn with a good baseball team. Remember they are the champions of Lee county.

The crowd was one of the best that has ever attended a dance here and the management wish to congratulate them for their excellent behavior. Little things like this are greatly appreciated and go a long way toward the pleasure of our dances more noticeable. The boys will have another dance on June 26 and they only hope the same crowd together with more of their friends will attend and this will insure another evening of enjoyment for all. Murphy's orchestra of Mendota furnished the music.

Barr's orchestra played for a dance in Maytown Tuesday night.

U. S. ARMY TO STAY TO BE WILSON REPLY

Carranza Must Be Able to Protect Border.

Washington, June 2.—It is stated authoritatively that American troops will not be withdrawn from Mexico until the Carranza authorities demonstrate control of the situation sufficient to protect the American border. A reply to that effect probably will be made to General Carranza's note. President Wilson was represented as ready to withdraw troops when possible, but determined to wait until the Carranza forces can control the situation.

Steps were taken by the war department to obtain more definite information of the disposition of Carranza troops in Chihuahua. It was said that the tone of Carranza's note prompted the action of military officials, without regard to the diplomatic phases of the situation.

General Funston has been asked to outline clearly situation in Chihuahua, according to his most recent information of the whereabouts of Carranza detachments. No anxiety is felt for the safety of General Pershing's column, but in view of the statement in Carranza's note it is desired to know as accurately as possible what the movements of his forces are.

The Easiest Way To End Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.

The top soil is the best black sandy loam to be found in Minnesota. The water is pure, and never-falling well on the place, which is occupied by tenant. The soil on this farm is as smooth as the best of the Red River Valley it should not be confused with same, as this is near the highest point of land in the state.

There is fair house and also other buildings with some fenced in pasture and also some field in crop, and all the land desired for crop can be broken with tractor and as this is new land one crop of flax will pay for it at the bargain price of $25 per acre.

Five thousand dollars cash will handle the deal and it is near direct line to Duluth, which is the best market in the Northwest.

BRANDEIS WINS SENATE BATTLE

Confirmed Associate Justice by Vote of 47 to 22.

THREE REPUBLICANS GIVE AID

Contest by Foes Bitter—Only One Democrat Casts Vote Against Nominee—Came into Prominence in Baltinger-Pinchot Controversy—In Social Uplift Work.

Washington, June 2.—Louis D. Brandeis' nomination to the supreme court bitterly fought by republicans for five months, was confirmed by the senate.

The vote was 47 to 22.

Three republicans who voted for Brandeis were Senators LaFollette, Norris and Poindexter. Senator Newlands was the only democrat who voted against him. Senators Clapp and Gronna, republicans, were paired in favor of confirmation.

Was Named on Jan. 27.

Mr. Brandeis was appointed by President Wilson to be associate justice of the supreme court to succeed the late Justice Lamar Jan 27.

The appointment of Mr. Brandeis was a surprise everywhere in official circles. Up to this time he had not even been mentioned for the vacancy. He is a lawyer who has been much in public life during the last three years, not only in legal work, but in various movements for social betterment. He is a native Kentuckian and is sixty years old. He was born and educated in Louisville and later at Harvard university, and in 1878 began practicing law in Boston.

Came into Public Notice.

Mr. Brandeis came most notably before the public as a national figure six years ago through his participation in the celebrated Baltinger-Pinchot investigation in congress, in which he was counsel for the forces which were opposed to Secretary Ballinger and sought his removal from office. Later he was counsel for the shippers who opposed the general increase in freight rates before the interstate commerce commission and during the same period he was at the forefront of those who were demanding an investigation of the financial affairs of the New Haven railroad.

Fought for Labor Law.

Among his participations in other public affairs were his appearance as counsel for those who fought for the validity of workman's hours of labor law in Oregon, Illinois and Ohio, as counsel for those who contended for the preservation of the Boston municipal subway system and in establishing the sliding scale gas system and the creation of savings bank insurance in Massachusetts.

TOO DANGEROUS TO OVERLOOK

DIXON PEOPLE WILL DO WELL TO REED THE WARNING

To have good health, the digestion, heart, lungs and kidneys must work perfectly. When there is anything wrong with the digestion, heart or lungs, a very noticeable pain gives prompt warning. Kidney trouble is more easily overlooked, however, and too often gains a long start. But kidney trouble does give early signs, and backache, headache, dizzy spells, rheumatic pains, too frequent, scanty or painful urination should not be neglected. When these warnings appear, use Doan's Kidney Pills, the reliable, success, strongly recommended kidney remedy. Assist the medicine by taking things easier, reducing the diet and the use of liquors. A severe attack of kidney disease may be avoided. Doan's Kidney Pills have won the grateful praise of Dixon people. Read this Dixon resident's endorsement.

Mrs. J. L. Fine, 1006 Peoria Ave., Dixon, says: "I have suffered for years from kidney trouble. My back ached and pained so severely that I had to stay in bed. I had headaches and dizzy spells and specks appeared before my eyes. My wrists and ankles also swelled. I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Leake Bros. Co.'s Drug store and they helped me. They have never failed to give satisfactory results."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Fine had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

THE CORN SEED WEEVIL.

Much damage is done by a little maggot or worm that may be found in the large end of the kernel. This maggot may so destroy your stand that you will have to replant. It may be this and not poor seed that causes your trouble. If, after careful examination you find your stand too thin you may replant at once, as it is not likely this maggot will do much more damage. Corn that has made a strong stalk will probably pull through all right. Remember that half a stand is better than to replant too late. Look your field over and see if you do not find a little white maggot called the seed corn weevil. This weevil does not usually cause trouble, but the backward season seems to have given it a chance to get in its work.

PRODUCE INFERTILE EGGS

The government estimates that fertile eggs cause a loss of $15,000,000 a year. This is because a fertile egg soon begins to hatch in warm weather.
These must be thrown out when cand-led. The rooster does not help the hens to lay; he merely fertilizes the egg. Warm weather starts the egg to hatching the same as an incubator.
The remedy: Kill, sell or pen up the rooster. The trade demands fresh eggs. An infertile egg will remain fresh longer than a fertile egg — so should command a better price.

YOUR ALFALFA

Watch your alfalfa for the shoots that start from the base of the plant.
Cut your first crop as soon as these shoots get well started. Don't rely on the amount of blossoms to determine the time to cut. It is the new growth that needs watching.

It is often advisable to disc your alfalfa after the first cutting. Weeds and blue grass may be thinned out, and a new and vigorous growth of alfalfa started. You won't kill the alfalfa by a good thorough discing. It may be possible for you to thicken up the places killed out by thoroughly discing, reseeded and harrowing or rolling. It is worth trying if most of your stand is good.

FARM VISITS.

I am making farm visits as fast as possible. There are many calls listed ahead. If a few members of a neighborhood wish to group their visits time may be saved. From two to four farms may be visited in a day and the members may go from one to another as they wish. Plan your tie and advise the director in your township or phone to the office. The office will be open every day, and Miss Parnham, the stenographer, will be able to give the members much information. Saturday will be regular office day, as well as rainy days, or you may make an appointment.
